

Klaus Lang is an internationally acclaimed and published photographer. Recognizing his unique color sense, a leading European dye manufacturer used a series of his images in a key advertising campaign: "Colors Show Life," printed in the respected international yearbook "Photo GRAPHIS" in 1979.

Mr. Lang's published credits include:

Camera (Switzerland) /Nova Fotografia (Italy) /Mein Schoener Garten (Germany) / Foto Zoom (Mexico) /Photo Canada /Photo Life (Canada) /Ontario Naturalist (Canada) Canadian Geographic /Tier- und Naturfotographie (Germany) / MacLean's (Canada), Photography Monthly (Britain), La Fotografia Actual (Spain), Digital Camera (Britain), and multiple publications in Nature Photographer (USA)

Bibliography:

PHOTO Graphis 79, (Photographic Yearbook), Time-Life: Photographing Nature (USA)/ Canada With Love, (Canada)/ These Things We Hold Dear (Kodak Book)/ Ontario, A Loving Look (Canada)/ Inspiration, Journey Through Nature (USA) / Prince Edward County, Lake Ontario's Isle (USA)

Additionally, Lang has hosted prime exhibitions in galleries all over Canada and the United States. His prints are part of the Canadian Museum of Contemporary Photography in Ottawa, Canada. A partial list of corporate clients includes Ely Lilly Pharmaceuticals, The Government of Ontario, The Government of Canada, Gebr. Schmidt, Germany, United Technologies and TBWA Advertising Agency and the Bolivian airline Aerosur

Price: $48.00

My Toronto - A Photographer's Narrative

by Klaus Lang

A Photographer's Narrative
by Klaus Lang